ROCKY MOUNT

HI-NOCAR

HIGH SCHOOL

TOBACCO

The weed on which many men depend, over which they sweat and swear . . . . the weed men enjoy whether he be rich or ragged, peasant or prince . . . . . Tobacco, king of Eastern Carolina, a part of the livelihood of Rocky Mount, a world wide industry for which men fight and toil . . . . . Tender, tempting, tasty tobacco; the weed this annual follows as its theme . . . . .

Julian Fenner, local tobacco man, sells tobacco in a dependable Rocky Mount warehouse.

ROCKY MOUNT

INDUSTRY

The weed which must be transplanted . . set out in a new environment, the weed which must be cultivated to grow into the raw material from which finished products can be made . . . . this finishing, the resistance and struggle it involves, the refining, the blending—all parts of making the product . . . . . So it has been with our class of 1941 . . . . . .

Dedication

To those who have sacrificed for us, advised and encouraged us, we show in this small way our deep appreciation—to the parents of the Seniors, we dedicate this, the 1941 edition of the HI-NOC-AR

CLASS SONG

THE CLASS OF FORTY-ONE

There came many faces
From many different places
Four or five years ago;
And millions of question
Were asked by the freshmen
To get their minds to grow.

CHORUS

Oh! Central High we love you.
You're the best friend we have known.

We seniors have given to you our devotion
And upheld all that you own.
Within our midst we hold dear
Memories fond and true:
Oh! Central High we love you,
The class of forty-one pays tribute to you.

CLASS POEM

We're the class of Forty-one
On the threshold of life—just begun
Through smiles, heartbreaks, laughs, and tears,
We will bravely face the oncoming years.

Yes, we're the class of Forty-one
Our days of study have had their fun
Picnics—Parties—i s all been grand,
Let's give our Alma Mater a great big hand!

Of course, the class of Forty-one
Considers the battle fairly won
And yet,—in a way,—it's just starting
Now that the time has come for parting.

Still, we're the class of Forty-one
And consider our work not too badly done
With a strong heart we face the world
With heads high and banners unfurled!

HI-NOC-AR presents

A vital part of RMHS is its activities. The Hi-Noc-Ar presents. therefore, a quick glance at several of these—presents them as you take part in them; presents them as parts of our democratic community.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Pictured on this page are two typical students of RMHS. They represent the qualities of initiative, co-operation, and assumption of individual responsibility which each student in RMHS is attempting to gain as his own. Follow them as they visit the activities of our school.

SELLERS ELECTED STUDENT HEAD

LOCOMOTIVE BILL CLOSES GOOD YEAR

Genial Bill Sellers finishes a brilliant career as a junior with the completion of this school year. Sellers served as president of the consolidated high school.

Known to all, freshman and seniors alike, the gangling lad has become known as a real worker.

Sellers was instrumental in the securing of several changes in the high.

WHITLEY SMOOTHLY ASSUMES BIG DUTY

Kannapolis lost a teacher and therein hangs the latest Rocky Mount story, for in Miss Helen Whitley we gained our biggest "idea-producer" yet. She worked them on a mass-production basis, we believe.

The Blackbird gained new life and a large circulation under the sparkling teachers lead. Many new plans are being formulated alreadyfor next year.

Whenever any original ideas with a bang are needed, students invarably consult Miss Whitley and come away more than satisfied.

S C O O P !—ADKINS ROLLS ALONG TO ANOTHER VICTORY IN BABY CARRAIGE.

Sorry, but you're wrong. We mean Adkins, Jr., not his proud papa who is pushing the carriage. And it WAS a victory for Junior. He wanted to go for a ride, but papa was busy and didn't want to take him.

However, a lusty pair of lungs very well developed, football player type lungs too—won out in the long run. (And then it began) Herewith is the proof. It's another Hi-Noc-Ar scoop!

ZENOBIA WHEELESS DOES IT AGAIN!

Lovalde "Zee" Wheeless has done it again. As president of the twelfth grade she has made things click just as in her other four years.

Appointing many committees took up Zee's first week in office — and the rest of the last semester was spent in seeing that they worked just as hard as she did.

The successful year that the Senior class had can in a large measure be attributed to Central's Miss Wheeless.

LUPER BIRDS' ACE IN HOLE PLAYER

Climaxing a star studded athletic career at Central is Buddy Luper, four letter man. However he is at his peak on the gridiron.

There wasn't any "All—Anything" that Luper was not included upon. He even made the "All-South" squad. Baseball, basketball, and track, were the other sports in which Luper took home letters.

Headed for Duke, Luper is also a very good student and is one of the most popular boys on the campus.

MOLLY-HARPER IS JEAN O'SHAUNESSY

No, it's Molly-Jean is Harper-O'Shaunessey. Aw, what we want to say is "Molly O'Shaunessey" was the year's outstanding play and that it starred Jean Harper in a role of the same name.

The three act play attracted a full house and was another tribute to the directorial genius of Mr. Cy dson.

There were other plays put on during the year — but an even better program is planned for next year when we seniors won't be here.

PARKER'S PRANCES COME TO A HALT

Pretty, vivacious, Maxine Parker's drum majorettedays are over. At least for the present it's graduation for Maxine.

The high stepping head majorette has been in front of the band tor three years and the boys in orange and black will miss her pert figure prancing around. She also helped train other girls to take her place this year.

Attracting attention always augments any band, and our Maxine deftly did just that.

SENIOR WEEK—MAY 12-16

During the five days of song and merriment the Seniors were especially honored. Beginning with a wienie roast and hayride, the class also enjoyed a free movie, Glee club, high school orchestra, and participated in the Quiz Court. They were honored at a tea given by the Dean of Girls. Open house was sponsored by Seniors. On the last night of their gala week, the Senior play "Oh, Promise Me" was presented. After the performance, the P. T. A. entertained the class at an informal dance. Armstead Brock, vice-president of the class was chairman of the Senior Week Committee.

Lee,

This seems awfully silly. We writing as if you were a senior. But that is just the way you feel. Well you will be starting out on something that will really test you to see if you are made of the best. Don't let any of us down and try to make the best record of your life. You can do it. And some day not as long as it may seem you will realize that all of the good work that you are going to do will have been O.K. The fellow you finally decide on will be getting the best. And you want to be sure and be prepared to give him the best you have. So think it over. Hoping you'll never forget.

Best
George

I certainly miss
you. Love
Evelyn Ferguson

Dear Lee,

I wish could have a million more years of joy like the ones you have given me. Ever since our first date on Oct. 24 I have truly had the greatest time of my life with you. I can thank you for inspiring me to strive to be good in everything I do, and trying to follow your good ideals of life. Lee, there aren't words to express you. I think you are perfect in every way. The next few years we will be far apart but I'll be thinking of you all the time. With everyone you are the best, young or old we all think you are tops. There is not but one Lee Stevens in all the world none can equal her. May my four hopes all come true in the coming years. I hope to see you even a greater woman goer than your mother, and pal she is good. By knowing, and going, and being with you's remarkable in every way. My words can't express all my feelings for a great girl. Striving to be more like her.

Lots of Love,
A. R.
